Doug Chinn Joins NetVersant as Avaya Director of Operations – West Region

HOUSTON, TEXAS, October 31, 2005 — NetVersant Solutions today announced that Doug Chinn recently joined the company as Avaya director of operations – west region. The announcement was made by Scott L. Fordham, president & chief executive officer of NetVersant.

Chinn brings to NetVersant more than 30 years of technical and management experience in the telecommunications industry, both with corporate environments and entrepreneurial ventures. Prior to joining NetVersant, Chinn was associated most recently with Technocom (ESP Technologies) as vice president – telephony. During his career, Chinn has also held various leadership positions with XETA Technologies, NorAm Telecommunications and Advanced Communication Technologies, as well as technical positions with AT&T and QWEST, formerly USWest/Pacific Northwest Bell.

“We are pleased to welcome Doug Chinn to NetVersant,” commented Fordham. “His impressive management experience in the telecommunications industry, coupled with valuable hands-on experience as a technician, gives Doug a unique perspective that will benefit our industry-leading organization.”

As a member of the NetVersant team, Chinn will work closely with NetVersant’s Customer Support Centers in the western region, where he will oversee Avaya telephony-related operations, recruit service personnel and foster relationships to market NetVersant’s converging IT solutions, according to Todd Davis, market sales director in NetVersant’s northwest region.

A former member, Chinn continues to remain active with the Avaya Business Partner Services Subcommittee, working with the Avaya leadership team to address Business Partner-related issues relative to Avaya Global Services. Among his academic and professional credentials, he holds a bachelor of science from the University of Oregon and has completed extensive sales and technical training offered by Avaya and Lucent Technologies.
